Ordinances and regulation

Ordinances

Name of the Course : Sourashtri Yuva Bharthi Course (SYBC)

O. SYBC. Certi.01 - OBJECTIVE

‘Sourashtra Heritage Chair’ established by Saurashtra University since 2008 to facilitate study and research, cultural exchange and reviving ties with Sourashtra People. It was in response to the active initiative, involvement and role of the scholars, institutions, organizations, Local community as well as NIR to find their roots and route after 900 years and their concern for Sourashtra language and culture in Tamilnadu in general and Madurai in particular.

Keeping with the growing concern of the use of Sourashtri which is an archival linguistic sight for Gujarati has always been in domestic use by the community who migrated from Gujarat before a thousand years, there needs to be formal efforts to save the Sourashtri in the today. Sourashtri has a status of minority language in Tamilnadu and is the mother tongue of the Sourashtra People who have kept to their cultural roots and identity as a community through Sourashtri for almost one thousand years of migration from Saurashtra region of Gujarat.

1. To provide formal learning of basic Sourashtri to all interested in acquiring Sourashtri, particularly the youth from Sourashtra community.
2. To preserve Sourashtri through its use by the people in their social sphere.
3. To spread awareness of the cultural, historical and linguistic importance of Sourashtri.
4. To morally empower the Sourashtra people with identity and self- esteem through acquiring their mother tongue Sourashtri which they have kept intact after centuries of migration from Gujarat.
